TC Neel: The Life and Times of a Texas Secessionist – A Conversation with Buck Cole In-Person and Virtual Attendance Options Sunday, August 21 at 2 pm

Join CCV members, volunteers and friends for another interesting program from Buck Cole: "TC Neel: The Life and Times of a Texas Secessionist". It will be presented at Tarrytown United Methodist Church, in the SWIFT Class Room, 2601 Exposition Blvd. Or you may opt to view the program remotely on zoom.

Like other states in the Confederacy, passions ran high in Texas in 1861. Eight months into the Civil War an impatient Texas secessionist and legislator named T.C. Neel pens an emotional letter to his wife Willia. Neel is as determined as he is homesick to see the war through to Southern victory. Spoiler alert, it doesn't happen! Click here to read more and RSVP – be sure to indicate in the comments box whether you will be in-person or on zoom.

Welcome to Our New Intern!

Amelia Card

Our Village Connections program is pleased to announce this year's Intern, Amelia Card. Native Texan, Amelia was raised on country and folk music and the value of service. Driven by wanderlust, she traveled the US and abroad playing music professionally and submerging herself in differing cultures. After settling in her home state, Amelia decided that obtaining a MS in Social Work would be the right next step. She began researching aging in the US and became a hospice volunteer, noticing a difference from other cultures abroad, and began to realize how many American seniors were isolated, depressed and suffering from a lack of community support. In her studies and her career, Amelia aspires to incorporate social work values, community strength and the connectivity of music making to assuage the transition and stigma of aging in the US.

Amelia is a first year masters student at The University of Texas at Austin's Steve Hicks School of Social Work and an Earl Maxwell Scholar.
