Happy New Year!

CCV has so many exciting things in store for 2024, but we wanted to take a quick moment to remember some of the special moments we shared in 2023. The photo collage above is just a snapshot of some of the programs CCV held, but we know that the happy hours, coffees, book club and so much more are where much of the magic happens – not to mention the one-on-one interactions between members and volunteers.

Looking forward, we are excited for our annual meeting, which will be held on February 26th at Tarrytown United Methodist. Starting in January and going through April, we have a great series put together by Henry McCown for the Third Wednesday Lunch to answer any questions you may have about different living options (more information below). We're also pleased to announce we'll be working with Aging is Cool to bring in some fun new programming in 2024 sponsored by Brookdale at Home and Obi Helpers in partnership with Shalom Austin Dell JCC and WellMed South Austin Senior Center.

For those of you making New Year's resolutions, Aging is Cool has free online fitness and wellness programs. One that looked particularly interesting is on January 18th at 11 a.m. when they'll be holding a free session called Making Your 2024 Wellness Plan (Password: Stretch).

You are all so appreciated and we can't wait to see you and make more magic happen this leap year!

Read to the End Contest!

Congratulations to Marie G. who correctly answered that Lisa Doggett is the author who presented her book Up the Down Escalator in December. She received a personalized signed copy of the book. Thank you to everyone who responded. Read to the end for this month's contest!

If you are a CCV member or volunteer and are interested in attending virtually, send an email to info@capitalcityvillage.org for additional information.

We all want to do everything we can to enjoy and prolong a high-quality-of-life environment in our own homes. But there may come a point when it's time to move to a more secure and structured environment. So we're starting our Third Wednesday Lunch meetings for 2024 with a series of four presentations in which we will look at the options available to CCV members when they may need some help at home and then if they can no longer remain in their own homes.

John Brown, CEO of Oasis Senior Advisors in Austin, will be our first speaker in this series. John will explain how a skilled Oasis Senior Advisor can help you sort through all the options and make an informed decision.

There are two basic business models which cover most of the options which we will discuss in this series, the buy-in model and the rental plan. To discuss the buy-in model, Jordan Bleeker of Westminster Manor will be our February BYOL speaker. Brookdale's rental plan will be the subject of our March BYOL meeting with presenter Brittani Johnson, Brookdale Westlake's Sales Manager.

And to wrap up this important series of presentations, at our meeting in April we will hear once again from John Brown of Oasis Senior Advisors. This time John will moderate a panel discussion so CCV members can "Ask the Experts" about their in-home and end-of-life options for assistance.

So, be sure to mark your calendars for our Third Wednesday BYO Lunch meetings. Get further details and RSVP at this link.

Celebrating Birthdays with Austin Allies

Capital City Village members and volunteers will be receiving handmade birthday cards through our partnership with Austin Allies, which promotes family volunteering in Austin.

Having a plan and the right tools on hand can help get us prepared for any upcoming winter storms. Here is a worksheet to aid in creating an emergency communications plan and a checklist for anything someone might need in an emergency.

One item that many people end up needing is a water meter key (like the one pictured above) to easily turn off the water at the curb. Please email info@capitalcityvillage.org or call 512-524-2709 and we can get one to you.

Residents are encouraged to follow <https://www.austintexas.gov/readycentraltexas/stay-informed> for emergency information. Stay safe!
